

5 Simple Prayers to Start the Day

Let us thank the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It was through His loving-kindness that we were born again to a new life and have a hope that never dies. This hope is ours because Jesus was raised from the dead. 1 Peter 1:3

Father God, I thank You for the blessings of this new day. Because of Your grace and mercy, I have faith in Your Son, and my Lord and Savior, Jesus. Because of His life, death, and resurrection, I have a new life and hope that lasts forever.

I believe that whatever this day brings, You will be with me surrounding me with Your love. I trust You to give me the strength needed to do Your will. You are "Yahweh" the "I AM" for all my life. Your unfailing love pursues me. Thanks and praise forever. Amen.

I urge you to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God; this is your true worship. Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God. Romans 12:1–2 (CSB)

Father, I give You my all. My thoughts, words, and actions ... my time, treasures, and abilities. Everything I have is a gift from You. I trust and love You because You invited me through grace, mercy, and love.

I want to glorify You in all things. So, I will SEEK to KNOW Your heart and Your will. I pray, that You will transform me by the power of Your Spirit to humbly and willingly apply the words, "thy will be done" to every part of my day. I praise and worship You for who You are and all You do. Amen.
